

Larry Eugene FloydLarry Eugene Floyd

LUMBERTON — Mr. Larry Eugene Floyd, of Lumberton, North Carolina, was born on Dec. 31, 1949, in Richmond, Virginia, to the late Mrs. Clara Floyd Grooms and departed this life on Feb. 14, 2016, at Southeastern Regional Medical Center, Lumberton, North Carolina.

Larry was raised in Robeson County by his uncle, the late Mr. Carry Lee Ellis, and aunt, the late Mrs. Earline Floyd Taylor.

During his years of schooling, he was employed by McMillian Funeral Home for several years. Larry attended the Public Schools of Robeson County, graduating in 1968 from South Lumberton High School. Larry proudly served his country in the U.S. Army. During his service he received a Purple Heart. Upon his return to North Carolina he became a licensed funeral director while working for Steven Rogers Funeral Home in Fayetteville, North Carolina, for five years. Larry served his community while working for the Red Springs Police Department for 31 years, until his retirement.

In the year of 1990, Larry established L.E. Floyd Funeral Home in Red Springs, and St. Pauls, North Carolina; which served families in Robeson, Hoke, Bladen, Scotland and Cumberland counties. He based his business on the motto: "Where Everyone is Someone."

He leaves fond memories to be cherished by his fiancée and caregiver, Reatha McNeill of the home, Lumberton, North Carolina; a sister, Sharon Grooms of Philadelphia; Pennsylvania; a brother, George Lee Thompson of Lumberton, North Carolina; three daughters, Brendella Gillis of Lumberton, North Carolina, Lisa M. Troy of Lumberton, and DyAsia Floyd of Red Springs, North Carolina; two sons, Edwin Gillis (Tanikia) and Tony McIver (Matasha) of Lumberton, North Carolina; two aunts, Ethel Pearl Ford (Dallas) of Fairmont, North Carolina, and Alice Carter (Thomas) of Fayetteville, North Carolina; his uncle, William "Bill" Floyd of Fairmont, North Carolina; a special cousin and friend, Clara Lawrence of Charlotte, North Carolina; five grandchildren, Marquiece Tyrele Gillis, Jasmine McCrae, Devangelo Gillis, Jacob Seals and Malik McIver; two stepchildren, Evagale McNeill and Tyleak McNeill of the home; a host of nieces, nephews, friends; and several others which he raised as his own.

A homegoing service for Mr. Larry Eugene Floyd will be held at noon Saturday at Hillary Branch Baptist Church, 1411 Hilly Branch Road, Lumberton, North Carolina.

The viewing will be held at from 4 to 6 p.m. today at L.E. Floyd Funeral Home, Red Springs, North Carolina., and from 11 a.m. to noon Saturday at Hilly Branch Baptist Church, Lumberton, North Carolina.

Entombment will military rites will follow in Moore's Landing, Lumberton, North Carolina.
